Manson School District

Monthly Policy Review/Self Evaluation

Policy: Governance Process III-2h Cost of Governance

I DE COLO	In	In Partial	Not in Compliance	Compliance	Compliance
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
cordingly:
Training and retraining will be used appropriately to orient new members and candidates for membership, as well as to maintain and increase existing member skills and understandings.
Outside monitoring assistance will be arranged so that the Board can exercise confident control over organizational performance.
Outreach mechanisms will be used as needed to ensure the Board's ability to listen to viewpoints and values of the Manson community.
The Board will present a reasonable budget to the Superintendent by May 1 of each year to address the following:
1. The training and re-training of Board members
2. Costs associated with external monitoring
3. Costs associated with owner linkage and outreach activities
4. Elections costs
5. Audit costs
	maintain and increase existing member skills and understandings. Outside monitoring assistance will be arranged so that the Board can exercise confident control over organizational performance. Outreach mechanisms will be used as needed to ensure the Board's ability to listen to viewpoints and values of the Manson community. The Board will present a reasonable budget to the Superintendent by May 1 of each year to address the following: 1. The training and re-training of Board members 2. Costs associated with external monitoring 3. Costs associated with owner linkage and outreach activities 4. Elections costs	cause poor governance costs more than learning to govern well, Board will invest in its governance capacity. Cordingly: Board skills, methods, and supports will be sufficient to assure governing with excellence. Training and retraining will be used appropriately to orient new members and candidates for membership, as well as to maintain and increase existing member skills and understandings. Outside monitoring assistance will be arranged so that the Board can exercise confident control over organizational performance. Outreach mechanisms will be used as needed to ensure the Board's ability to listen to viewpoints and values of the Manson community. The Board will present a reasonable budget to the Superintendent by May 1 of each year to address the following: 1. The training and re-training of Board members 2. Costs associated with external monitoring 3. Costs associated with owner linkage and outreach activities 4. Elections costs	raine poor governance costs more than learning to govern well, Board will invest in its governance capacity. Board skills, methods, and supports will be sufficient to assure governing with excellence. Training and retraining will be used appropriately to orient new members and candidates for membership, as well as to maintain and increase existing member skills and understandings. Outside monitoring assistance will be arranged so that the Board can exercise confident control over organizational performance. Outreach mechanisms will be used as needed to ensure the Board's ability to listen to viewpoints and values of the Manson community. The Board will present a reasonable budget to the Superintendent by May 1 of each year to address the following: 1. The training and re-training of Board members 2. Costs associated with external monitoring 3. Costs associated with owner linkage and outreach activities 4. Elections costs

Comments:

Name:	Date of Review:	March 28, 2022